FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FALL BOOK SALE STARTS THIS WEEKEND

The Friends of the Southeast Steuben County Library will be holding its Fall Book Sale from Saturday Oct. 22 through Saturday Oct. 29 this year. There has never been such a wide selection as what shoppers will see during this sale.

"We've gotten more donations this year than in our two previous sales," said Nancy Douth, book sale committee co-chair. "We've got a wonderful collection of children's books and young adult books."

There has been such an outpouring of donations that the Friends have had to temporarily stop accepting them. Donations will again be accepted after Nov. 2. Douth also mentioned that there are hundreds of cookbooks to choose from this year as well as an overflow supply of adult fiction.

The sale will begin with a members preview day on Oct. 22 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Nonmembers can join at the door for $5; families can join for $10. Beginning Sunday Oct. 23 the sale will be open to the general public with no membership fee. The dates and times are as follows:
