FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USE FRONT ENTRANCE AT LIBRARY FOR BOOK DONATIONS JULY 29-SEPTEMBER 9

The book deposit slot for donations at the Southeast Steuben County Library will not be accessible from July 29 through September 9, 2011 while the library building is undergoing construction of its new roof. It is possible that this arrangement could continue past September 9 if the construction is not completed by then.

During this time book donations will be accepted through the front entrance to the library. Bins will be available to drop books between the front entrance and plaza side doors.

Book donations are used by the Friends of the Southeast Steuben County Library during its biannual book sale. The proceeds benefit the library and our patrons. For details about what kind of donations we are able to use, please visit <http://ssclibrary.org> or call (607) 936-3713.
