TEEN POETS DINNER, DISCUSSION AND READING AROUND THE CORNER

The Teen Poets Dinner and Discussion is right around the corner. Teen writers are invited to attend the dinner and poetry reading that follows. The dinner for teens and our guest poets begins at 5 p.m. on April 26. The reading, which is open to the public, begins at 6 p.m.

Our honored guest is Susan Deer Cloud who has earned a number of awards including a National Endowment for the Arts in Literature Fellowship. Dinner guests can enjoy a conversation with Deer Cloud and our special guest, poet and publisher, Michael Czarnecki.

At 6 p.m. Deer Cloud will give a poetry reading and invite the teen poets to read some of their work if they wish.

For the dinner, we encourage teens to sign up in advance by calling (607) 936-3713 ext. 503. The menu has been donated by Wegmans. The poetry reading, however, is open to the public and no sign up is required.

This program is in celebration of National Poetry Month.
