ADULT PROGRAMS WILL HELP YOU GET IN TOUCH WITH YOUR CREATIVE SIDE

What are your interests? Do you write? Are you into scrapbooking, stamping, or theater? Do you need a grant for a project or interest? One way or another, the fall programming for adults at the Southeast Steuben County Library will encourage you to create.

Sign up is required for these programs by calling (607)936-3713 ext. 502

Stamping with Chris Warner will be held Sept. 4, Nov. 6 and Dec. 4 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Learn basic stamping and bring home three handmade items from each class. There is an $8 materials fee due at each class.

The Adult Creative Writers Group is held the first Wednesday of each month from 4-6 p.m. and the third Thursday of each month from 6-8 p.m. This is a great way to inject some new energy into an often solitary activity. Come and share your work and spend time writing with other like-minded individuals. Writers in all genres are welcome. Sign up is not required for this group.

Sit and Chat Craft is held the second and fourth Wednesday of each month from 4-6 p.m. Learn crochet or bring your own craft to work on. Some craft supplies are provided as well as refreshments and conversation. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

Homespun Quarterly Crafting will be held Sept. 23 from 4-6 p.m. Dinner, dessert and music will be provided. Then try some crafts on our craft table. This meeting will feature homespun crafts. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

In October fall in love with scrapbooking. This series will be held Oct. 2, 16 and 30 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Chris Warner will teach this introduction to scrapbooking. No experience necessary for this creativity-fest. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

A True Story- a one woman show with Vicie Rolling. This performance will be held Oct. 9 at 6 p.m. It is a full costume, adaptation of Mark Twain's, "A True Story, Repeated Word for Word as I Heard It," based on the life of slave Mary Ann Cord who witnessed the sale of her family and later was able to reunite with one of her sons. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

Foundation Grants to Individuals Online to be held Oct. 18 at 3 p.m. This is a workshop for individual grant seekers who wish to learn how to navigate the Foundation Center database.

Poetry in the afternoon will be held Oct. 20 at 1 p.m. This is part of an ongoing series. The guest speaker is to be announced. However, local poets are welcome to sign up for the open mic portion of the program at any time.

Have you lost touch with your creative spark? Join us Nov. 10 from 1-2:30 p.m. for Investing Yourself in the Creative Process with Vicie Rolling. This workshop will help you find the tools to rekindle your creative mind. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

NaNoWriMo Write In, in celebration of National Novel Writing Month, will be held Nov. 17 and 18 from 4-6 p.m. The library will supply quiet space, food, inspiration and door prizes. Bring your laptop or notebook and get writing with us. Don't forget to sign up at www.nanowrimo.org at the beginning of November and try to finish your book in one month. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.

A grant database workshop for The Foundation Directory Online Professional will be held Dec. 6 from 10 a.m. to noon. This grant workshop looks at grants for nonprofit organizations. Those who operate nonprofit organizations or want to start one will find this workshop of interest.

Finally, join us for Christmas Quarterly Crafting Dec. 15 from 4-6 p.m. This meeting will feature last minute, easy but impressive craft gifts. Dinner, dessert and music will be provided. Then try the crafts at our craft table, or bring something from home to work on. Made possible by the Friends of the Library.
