FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SENIOR TECHNOLOGY SERIES TO BE HELD AT SSC LIBRARY

Seniors looking to embrace new technology in order to stay in touch with family, read books or just play a game of solitaire will benefit from the new Seniors Technology Series at the Southeast Steuben County Library.

The Series will be held on select days in August from 11 a.m. to noon. Each workshop will focus on a different aspect of consumer technology.

Aug. 8 | An introduction to computers. Participants will learn about the Windows 8 operating system for PC and about the Apple operating system. The workshop also covers using the Internet.

Aug. 15 | Skype. Learn to make video or audio calls on your computer. Keep in touch with family.

Aug. 22 | Tablet and eReaders. Come in and try iPad, Samsung Galaxy, Windows RT, Google Nexus, Kindle Fire HD, Nook and iPad Mini tablets.

Aug. 29 | Internet and Email Basics. In addition to Internet and email basics, this workshop will also cover how to use the library's digital catalog, subscription databases and other useful tools on the library Website.

Programs made possible by the Friends of the Library
