AUTHOR TO GIVE READING AT SSC LIBRARY

Join us for a poetry reading at the Southeast Steuben County Library on Dec. 1 at 2 p.m. Ann Day will read from her book of poetry, We Saved What We Can: Poems of War and Refuge.

Day was born in Malta and spent her summers on the Channel Island of Jersey. When war broke out she and hundreds of other children were evacuated by ship to America. These poems are an account of her childhood experiences.

Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the reading. Those who wish to buy the book in advance can get it at amazon.com. Purchase is not required to attend the reading.

Sign up by calling, (607) 936-3713 ext. 502.
