FALL 2013 FRIENDS BOOK SALE EARNS $24K FOR SSC LIBRARY

The Friends of the Library fall book sale earned a gross amount of $24,919 that benefits the Southeast Steuben County Library.

Once again, the book sale was made successful by the dozens of volunteers who work throughout the year accepting and organizing the donations and the many hours they give during the weeks leading up to and after the sale.

"The donated books, CD's, DVDs, puzzles and games, etc. are moved by volunteers before each sale from the library garage to the East Corning Fire Hall," said book sale co-chair Nancy Douth. "All books are well-organized so that shoppers can easily find what they are looking for."

Douth added that in the future shoppers will not find LPs, cassettes or VHS movies at the sales because there is a limited market for those items. Patrons can still donate these items for the time being, however.

The 2014 Spring Book Sale will be held May 3-10.
