CELEBRATE CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK AT THE SSC LIBRARY

Children's Book Week is May 12-18. The Southeast Steuben County Library will hold two family-friendly programs to celebrate early literacy.

Join us May 12 from 4-5 p.m. when local author Joyce French reads her new book, The Popcorn Tree. Afterwards, stay for a popcorn craft. We will be making bird feeders and don't forget to nibble on some popcorn as well.

On May 15 from 4-5 p.m. join us when the Tanglewood Nature Center brings some friends for a program entitled, "How to Get There and What to Wear." Learn how animals move in the wild and find out why they are covered in so many different kinds of "outfits."

Children's Book Week is an annual celebration of children's books and reading that has taken place since 1919. It is the longest running national literacy initiative in the United States.
