There will be a Barnes & Noble bookfair June 27 from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. to support the Southeast Steuben County Library at the Barnes & Noble at 821 County Rd. 64, Elmira, NY.

Library staff will be available during this time at the bookstore to answer questions and share information about library services. There will also be special programs throughout the day for shoppers to enjoy.

At 10:30 a.m. Miss Sue will lead story time and a craft.

From 1:30-3 p.m. shoppers can see 3D printer demonstrations and check out our LEGO robots. These were made possible by a grant from Corning Rotary Club.

In the evening time, enjoy live music to read by from 4-6 p.m. Maryalice Little and Hannah Little will play harp and viola.

Finally, local author Gregg D. Caruso will be on hand to sign his new book, Science and Religion: 5 Questions, from 5-7 p.m.

During the bookfair shoppers can show a voucher, which must be picked up in advance at the library, at the register and a percentage of their purchase price will go to the Southeast Steuben County Library.

Can't make it to the bookfair? Pick up a voucher in the library and show your support when you shop online between June 27 and July 3 at bn.com/bookfairs.
