LIBRARY TO SPARK A REACTION WITH TEEN PROGRAMMING

The Southeast Steuben County Library will have special programming for teens this summer as part of the Teen Summer Reading Program, "Spark a Reaction." Teens must sign up in advance for these programs by calling (607)936-3713 ext. 503.

Special programming for teens ages ten and older kicks off July 7 from 1-3 p.m. with the Giant Knitting Nancy. Artist Crossroads grant recipient Erica Flanagan will be present with her large scaled peg loom, the knitting nancy. Participants will weave a giant netted tube to create a garden seating sculpture. Everyone will make their own knitting nancy or knitting ned to take home. This program is funded in part by public funds from NYSCA's Decentralization Program, administered regionally by The Arts Council of the Southern Finger Lakes.

Join us July 8 from 1-3 p.m. for the Invention Convention. Teens and tweens can make new things from everyday objects, learn to grow crystals in a jar, make an unbreakable bubble and more. This program is sure to spark a reaction.

On July 14 from 3:30-5 p.m. Make Your Own Glass Experience takes place at the Corning Museum of Glass. Participants will learn glass making techniques and get hands on experience. Meet in The STUDIO at CMOG parking lot at 3:15 p.m.

The Aug. 1 meeting of the First Friday Art Club will take place at the Corning Museum of Glass. The group will investigate the glass making process from drawing to final product. Participants should meet in The Studio at CMOG at 3:15 p.m. and the program will run 3:30-5 p.m.
