FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEEN READ WEEK OFFERS FUN, LEARNING ALL WEEK

Teen Read Week, with the theme, "Turn Dreams into Reality" will be held Oct. 12-18. Teens are invited to come to the library to find out how to turn their dreams into reality. If you can dream it, there is a book to help you achieve it.

To celebrate Teen Read Week the Southeast Steuben County Library will offer special programs just for teens all week.

The schedule is as follows:

Monday Oct. 13, 1-3 p.m. | Cache Me if You Can game day. Dan Hundycz from DPH Games will visit with the board game he created. Come to play the game and ask Dan how he made his dream a reality.

Tuesday Oct. 14, 3:30-5 p.m. Anime/Manga Comic Book Character Costume Contest. This program is for ages 10 and older. To participate in this contest, come dressed in your best anime costume and bring the book containing your character. Best in show will be awarded to best female and best male character costume.

Wednesday Oct. 15, 3:30-5 p.m. | Dream catchers. Capture your dreams in writing and secure them in your very own creation. This program is for ages 10 and up. Sign up is required by calling (607) 936-3713 ext. 503.

Thursday Oct. 16, 6:30-8 p.m. | Torn Page Writers Group for teens. What are your writing dreams? Find out how to enter contests and submit your writing for publication. For questions call, (607) 936-3713 ext. 220.

Friday Oct. 17, 3:30-5 p.m. | Is a career in science your dream? Join us for Teen Tech Friday. See a 3D printer demonstration, then customize your own Jack-O-Lantern. 3D printing takes a while, so Jack-O-Lanterns will need to be picked up at a later date. This program is for ages 10 and older. Sign up by calling (607)936-3713 ext. 503

Teen Read Week is literacy initiative of the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA).
