FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STOP BY SSC LIBRARY FOR TECH CLASSES, ONE-ON-ONE HELP IN MARCH

The Southeast Steuben County Library will hold two digital literacy workshops in March.

The first is the Free Software Workshop, slated for Thursday March 5 from 1:30-3 p.m. If you are interested in photo editing, computer security or just need to clean up your computer, then this workshop is for you. The program will feature all free software that is available online including: CClearner, Malware Bytes, antivirus software, GIMP design software, Picasa photo editing software and more.

An Intermediate iPad Workshop will be held Thursday March 19 from 10 a.m. to noon. Learn about some of the more advanced features of the iPad including Siri settings, making calls from your iPad, keyboard options and much more.

To sign up for either of these workshops, call (607)936-3713 ext. 502. As always, our digital literacy staff are available for one-on-one help sessions by appointment. To make an appointment call 936-3713 ext. 502, and ask for a digital literacy help appointment or email diglit@stls.org.
