SPRING BREAK FUN PLANNED FOR TEENS AT SSC LIBRARY

Hey, teens! It's time to make plans for your spring break and the Southeast Steuben County Library has great programs for you to enjoy during your week off.

The following programs are for teens, ages ten and up. Those who wish to attend a program should sign up by calling the Children's Department in the library at (607) 936-3713 ext. 503.

Join us on March 31 for Sand Art from 1-3 p.m. You will color your sand and then fill decorative bottles with the sand, creating colorful patterns.

Then, on April 1 come in for a three-hour read-a-thon from 1-4 p.m. You can read anything you like or if you haven't picked out a book you can try "speed dating" books to find just the right one. Snacks will be provided.

Finally, on April 2, use a provided recipe to make glow in the dark bouncy balls. This program will be held from 1-3 p.m. Science glows and moves in this program!
