FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADULTS: ESCAPE THE ORDINARY; COME TO SSC LIBRARY FOR SUMMER READING FUN

Adults will have plenty of opportunity to escape the ordinary this summer with special summer reading events just for them.

Sign up for individual events or programs by calling (607)936-3713 ext. 502.

6 p.m. Tuesday July 7 | Find the extraordinary in the ordinary. Make Paper Bag Art Journals with Tarren Young. All materials will be provided.

5 p.m. Tuesday July 21 | Pop Art Workshop with Michael Albert. Join Albert for a presentation on "Cerealism" and then make your own pop art. This program is for teens and adults.

4 p.m. Saturday July 25 | Firefly Screening and Cosplay. Enjoy a screening of two different pilot episodes of Firefly and stay for a discussion of your favorite show. Also, come dressed as your favorite Firefly character for a chance to win the costume contest.

6:30 p.m. Tuesday Aug. 4 | Into the Heart of Rural America: A One Woman Show. Sharon Backos has set out to record the stories of ordinary upstate New Yorkers and turn them into something extraordinary. She now brings her one woman show to the library.

6 p.m. Thursday Aug. 13 | Phenomenon and Paranormal Investigations: Exploring Seneca and Beyond. What lurks in the depth of the Finger Lakes? Join us for a viewing of a short documentary, "Exploring Seneca" and then hear stories of the PPI's other investigations. Get ready for a spooking evening.

All adults can attend these programs, but to be eligible for summer reading prizes, adults should sign up for the summer reading program and then read. Keep track of what you read on slips provided. Bring your slips in each week to be a part of the weekly prize drawing throughout the summer. For more details, ask any staff member in the library.

Adults can also participate in the Passport to Read program. Get caught reading in public! Sign up for summer reading and the passport July 2 between 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. and any time after July 6.
