SEPTEMBER BRINGS CRAFTY PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS AT SSC LIBRARY

Adult programs at the Southeast Steuben County Library always offer attendees a chance to get creative and learn something new. As we move into fall here are our scheduled programs:

Saturday Sept. 19 from 4-6 p.m., join us for Quarterly Crafting. Attendees can make mini dream catchers and vision boards. Supplies for other crafts will also be on hand. Pizza, veggies and dessert will be provided.

Sticky Notes Thematic Book Club is held the fourth Tuesday of the month at 1 p.m. The group will meet on Sept. 22 to share books with "Food Related Titles." Pick a book that has a title related to food in some way, whether the story is or not, read it and come tell us about it.

Spin a Yarn! knitting and crochet group meets on the first and third Thursday of each month from 6-8 p.m. Bring something you are working on or use provided supplies to make something for a worthy cause. Beginners welcome.

Corning Area Adult Writers' Group meets every Thursday from 6-8 p.m. The third Thursday meeting is held at the library while the remaining meetings are held at Soul Full Cup Coffeehouse on Market Street in Corning.

For questions or to sign up for a program, call (607) 936-3713 ext. 502 or email wells@stls.org.
