

A leaf out of our book

What's going on at the Southeast Steuben County Library Vol. 1 Issue 9

Start your job search at the library

Are you looking for a job? Do you need to update your resume? The library isn't just a place to get books, though we have books and so much more. It is also the best place to start if you need a job or want to find a new job. We have staff who can help you write your resume. We can also point you in the direction of resources that can help.

One of our resources is JobNow! by Brainfuse. You can find the link on our Website, ssclibrary.org. JobNow! offers a job search and live chat with professionals who can help you ace your interview, and assist you in writing or revising your resume. JobNow! also offers live tutoring, test preparation and an online writing lab.

This service, and many others, is free to our library patrons. Remember, when you support your library you are getting so much more than books.
