GHOST DETECTIVE TO STREAM LIVE AT LIBRARY

The Ghost Detective- Paranormal Investigations, a program brought to us from the Port Jervis Free Library, will be streaming live at the Southeast Steuben County Library May 10 from 6:30-8 p.m.

Michael Worden is the Ghost Detective from the Paranormal Police Headquarters (www.paranormalpolice.com). He has ten years of law enforcement experience and has been hunting ghosts since 2000.

Worden's interest in the paranormal can be traced to his childhood. "I was the kid in elementary school who was reading books on ghosts and the paranormal." Worden said. His interest was fueled by personal experiences he and many members of his family had at his grandparent's home, which, he says, is still haunted to this day.

In 2000 Worden began to work with noted author, historian and researcher Linda Zimmermann. Zimmermann is the author of the Ghost Investigator series of books. They investigated numerous locations including cemeteries, private homes, and many other haunted locations. Their more notable locations include Eastern State Penitentiary, the Lizzie Borden House, and Rolling Hills Sanatorium.

Michael has also released his own book, Ghost Detective, which takes you on a journey into the dark and eerie world of ghost hunting. Explore the nature of ghosts, sensible techniques of ghost hunting, and then see real photographic evidence of the paranormal at this haunting program!
